Name: Moses Walker

Address: 2260n Noble Rd #

Cleveland, OH 44121-1433

Dear Moses Walker:

Cuyahoga County Department of Children and Family Services received a complaint on 10/18/2004 alleging that you abused a child by sexually fondling their vaginal area under their clothing.

Section 2151.421 of the Ohio Revised Code requires the agency to investigate all complaints of child abuse and neglect. We are required to share our findings with the local police department and the State of Ohio Central Registry for Child Abuse and Neglect. We may find that the allegations are unsubstantiated (no evidence), indicated (circumstantial or other isolated indicators of child abuse or neglect), or substantiated (confirmed evidence). The investigation was completed on 11/05/2004. Our investigation determined that the allegation of sexual abuse was indicated.

If you do not agree, you have the right to appeal the disposition through the Cuyahoga County Department of Children and Family Services' Grievance Procedure. If you would like to utilize this grievance procedure and appeal the determination stated on this form, you must send a written request to:

Customer Service Unit
Cuyahoga County Department of Children and Family Services
3955 Euclid Avenue, 112W
Cleveland, OH 44115

This written notice of appeal must be received within ten (10) days from the date of the postmark. The request for an appeal must be in writing. If someone else makes a written hearing request for you, it must include a written statement, signed by you, telling us that person is your representative.

The Customer Service Unit will provide and communicate this Grievance Policy to all individuals including those with hearing or visual impairment, or those that speak a language other than English through its resources: including, but not limited to, translators, sign-language interpreters, and other service providers. If you need any assistance or accommodations for any disability, please contact the Customer Service Unit at the address provided and/or (216) 432-CARES (2273).

Sincerely,

Jimmy Dimora, County Commissioner
Administration Building
1219 Ontario Street
Cleveland, Ohio

Dear Commissioner:

It is my wish that this letter find you in the best of health and spirit. My reason for writing this letter is to inform you of a potential lawsuit.

The point is, I was found not guilty for alleged crimes 2905.1, 2907.5 of the Ohio Revised Code. I was told that irregardless of any Common Pleas Court decision, I must go through an appeal process with Children and Family Services. I, indeed, complied with the Hearing that the senior supervisor proposed. I brought forward all relevant documentation. The Journal Entry clearly cleared me of all charges defined by Ohio Revised Code and was ordered released.

After going through several Hearings with Children and Family Services, it was determined by Senior Supervisor, Vikki Csornok, Customer Service Representatives Christopher Walter, Erika Gaiter, Latasha Brown, and Susan Preuss that the disposition is to remain unchanged. Furthermore, the Department of Children and Family Services employees previously mentioned used the Ohio Revised Code for their own malicious and deceitful agendas. Alleged Defendants should have known that failure to exercise due care in performance of their duties would cause Plaintiff severe emotional distress. As a result of their actions the Plaintiff suffered severe humiliation, mental anguish, emotional and physical distress.

As Commissioners of this great state my wishes are to resolve this matter in an orderly fashion without going into Civil Court. Attached is the final Letter of the Disposition by Vikki Csornok, Senior Supervisor for Children and Family Services.

Correct me if I am wrong, but is it not true, that there is only one Ohio Revised Code, which is binding and cannot be manipulated for one's own personal satisfaction. Children and Family Services have clearly reached in the bottomless pit of malice, hatred and deceit to cast a cloud over my wellbeing.

You can contact me at (216) 297-031 or 2260 Noble Road, apt. #3, Cleveland, Ohio 44121.

Sincerely,

Moses Walker

Dear Mr. Walker,

After completing a review of the case record and factoring in the information provided at the Administrative Appeal held on 12-08-06, it has been determined that the disposition of sexual abuse indicated will remain unchanged. As required by Ohio Revised Code, the agency has shared this finding with the local police department and the State of Ohio Central Registry for Child Abuse and Neglect.

If you have any further questions regarding this finding, please contact the Customer Service Unit at (216) 432-2273.

Sincerely,

Mr. Moses Walker
2260 Noble Road
Cleveland Heights, Ohio 44121

Dear Mr. Walker,

This is in response to your request for further review of your appeal of an "indicated" finding of sex abuse dated December 8, 2006.

A thorough review of the investigation and case record, consultation with appropriate staff, in addition to the documents and information which you provided has resulted in a change of the disposition of "indicated," to a finding that the complaint dated October 18, 2004 alleging sex abuse of a minor is "unsubstantiated."

Section 2151.421 of the Ohio Revised Code requires the agency to investigate all complaints of child abuse and neglect. We are required to share our findings with the local police department and the State of Ohio Central Registry for Child Abuse and Neglect.

If you have any further questions, please contact Susan Preuss in the Customer Service office at 216-432-2273.

Sincerely,
